

Ideal Job Description

In order for your Ideal Job Description to come to life you must overcome the programming of being a realistic adult. There is evidence everywhere of people creating companies and positions purely based upon passions and interests that add real value to other people. The real challenge is getting yourself to believe it is possible for you...

Just a few examples of those companies to get you started...

TravelWealth.com

Fitpacking.com

Rookiemoms.com

Here is a list of sample questions to get you started. Just like all of our exercises use the ones you need. Throw out the ones you don't.

Fill in the blank:

If I could make a great living just doing _____ I would be over the moon!

When I was a little kid I always wanted to be a _____ .

If money and time weren't an object I would spend all most of my time _____ .

The work I truly enjoy doing is _____ .

Time flies when I'm _____

You couldn't pay me to stop _____

I am really jealous of the people who get to _____ all day

If I could do anything I wanted I would _____

If I knew I could not fail I would _____

Ideal Job Description

Based on my answers to the questions above my Ideal Job Description is...
